American Tag Team Title

The title would go by many different names including United States Tag Team Title, Eastern States Tag Team Title, North American Tag Team Title, Midwest Tag Team Title, Ohio Tag Team Title, and Tri-State Tag Team Title. The name seems to depend on which city it was defended in and the time period. Much of the confusion over the name is likely due to sloppy reporting by newspapers because of their low opinion of wrestling. Additionally the lineages are likely slightly different in various cities.
